

National Conference

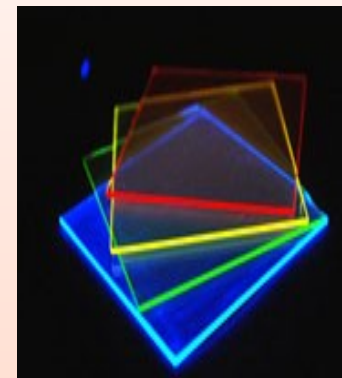

on

Advances in Spectroscopic Techniques and Materials (ASTM-2018)

March 14-16, 2018 at Indian Institute of Technology (Indian School of Mines), Dhanbad

Organized by

Department of Applied Physics, IIT(ISM) Dhanbad, www.iitism.ac.in

THEME AND OBJECTIVES

The proposed conference earnestly expects the union of academia, scientists, technologists and entrepreneurs on a common platform to exchange rational views and valuable ideas, thereby enriching themselves in their professional mission. This conference is based on the topics listed below.

AREAS AND TOPICS
